

Teaching materials

Instead of a slide deck we are providing the latex source code of our manuscript to help with creating teaching materials. The source code contains all of the equations and figures so that you may easily copy them to your latex file. Simply use the manuscript as a guide to find the appropriate equations and figures. If you have any problems in compiling the code, please feel free to contact the authors.